PROJECTS

Image to Native Text Translator

- Text Extraction: Extract text from images (PNG, JPG), PDFs, and documents (DOCX, TXT) using OCR technology.
- Multilingual Translation: Translate extracted text into the user's preferred language with Google Translate integration.
- LLM-Powered Enhancement: Refine extracted and translated text using a Large Language Model for improved accuracy and context.
- Cross-Platform Support: Accessible on web and desktop environments.
- High Accuracy: Robust OCR and translation ensure reliable results across various file types and languages.

Laptop Price Prediction Model

- Data Preprocessing: Handles noisy data with feature engineering, including encoding categorical variables and handling missing values.
- User-Friendly Interface: A web application (e.g., using Streamlit or Flask) allows users to input laptop specifications and receive price predictions.
- Model Performance: Utilizes robust algorithms (e.g., Random Forest, XGBoost) for high prediction accuracy.
- Exploratory Data Analysis: Includes visualizations to understand the impact of features like brand, RAM, and processor on pricing.
